

The Dorsey & Whitney Diversity Fellowship

Dorsey & Whitney LLP is highly committed to diversity. We understand the value of a diverse work environment and believe that this environment adds to the success of our attorneys and staff. Dorsey is committed to recruiting, retaining and promoting attorneys from diverse backgrounds and strives to be a leader on diversity issues.

Award

We are pleased to announce the sixth annual Dorsey & Whitney Diversity Fellowship program. Each recipient will work as a 2011 Dorsey summer associate in our Denver, Minneapolis or Seattle office and, at the end of the summer, will receive $10,000 toward law school tuition and expenses for the 2011-2012 school year.

Eligibility

All students of diverse backgrounds who will have completed two years of law school by the summer of 2011 are eligible to apply. Applicants must attend an ABA-accredited law school. Successful applicants will have a demonstrated record of academic achievement and a commitment to promoting diversity in the legal community.

Application

To apply, please submit the following materials to the offices for which you wish to be considered:

- The Dorsey & Whitney Diversity Fellowship application
- A personal statement addressing the ways in which you have promoted and will continue to promote diversity in the legal community, what diversity means to you and why you are interested in Dorsey
- Your resume (including cumulative undergraduate GPA)
- An official law school transcript

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis and will be accepted until August 13, 2010.
