

INTERNATIONAL ENERGY PROJECT EXPERIENCE

Dorsey & Whitney energy attorneys have:

- Provided counsel in connection with electric restructuring in Lithuania, Moldova, Slovakia, Russia and Italy;
- Represented the Algerian National Energy Company in connection with the sale of energy;
- Provided counsel for a greenfields power project in Poland;
- Successfully served as counsel for an applicant seeking to build a natural gas pipeline from Alaska through Canada to the lower 48 States;
- Represented the Government of American Samoa in compliance with federal antitrust decree applicable to petroleum operations in the territory, including negotiation of leases and operating agreements with major international petroleum suppliers;
- Represented Government of Ethiopia in restructuring their oil and natural gas laws and regulation as well as related tax, exchange and customs laws and regulations;
- Provided counsel in connection with task force developed to address the restructuring of the oil and natural gas production and pipeline laws and regulations in Russia;
- Represented independent oil and gas company in connection with an oil and natural gas concession in Guatemala, including arbitration pursuant to International Chamber of Commerce requirements;
- Represented independent oil and gas company in connection with its oil and natural gas concession in Columbia;
- Represented independent oil and gas company in connection with its oil and natural gas concession in Ecuador; and
- Provided counsel in connection with acquisition of oil and natural gas interests in Chile and Argentina.