

Community Leadership

Board service is one of the key ways Dorsey lawyers expand the reach of giving and provide leadership in the communities in which we live and work. The firm supports and encourages volunteer service on nonprofit boards as well as involvement in leadership of bar and other professional organizations. Since 2010, Dorsey lawyers served on boards or in other leadership roles in over 350 charitable, civic, cultural or professional organizations.

"What I like most about serving on the Board of Utah Symphony and Utah Opera is the knowledge that I am doing something worthwhile to sustain what I believe is a very important part of, really a gift to, our community. It is gratifying to know that I am needed and relied on in an endeavor that I feel provides so much value to the community and to the citizens of Utah as a whole."

Annette Jarvis, Partner, Salt Lake City

Utah Symphony | Opera

was founded in 1940 and has become an eminent presence in the American music scene through its distinctive performances worldwide and its well-known recording legacy. Since 1978, the Utah Opera has cultivated and entertained a growing audience of more than 150,000 annually around the intermountain area. In 2002, the Utah Symphony and Utah Opera merged.
